Claw-some First Pitch

Arc Ocean was honored as the official Community Partner at the August 5th Jersey Shore BlueClaws baseball game where Keith from the Laurel Oaks supervised apartments did a claw-some job throwing the first pitch!

Adaptive Fitness Classes

Did you know that increasing physical activity while having fun has been proven to benefit one's their physical, mental and emotional health?

By incorporating cardio and strength exercises into kickball, t-ball, mini golf and pickle ball games, our adaptive fitness classes have been building muscle and character!

A Community that Grows Together

Our Journeys and Discovery Adult Training Center participants are growing vegetables and their knowledge!

From volunteering at the Wrangle Brook Community Garden to starting their own program garden, J&D participants have earned their certified green thumbs from all their hard work in the garden.

Residential Corner

Meet out beautiful Buckingham group home residents who love to spend time together as roommates!

You can usually find them out in the community eating at local restaurants, walking around the Manasquan Reservoir, driving through the Six Flags Wild Safari, or relaxing at the Jersey Shore!
